

He maha ngā kupu whakarite o Īhu ki a whakamōhio atu ki te rangatiratanga o te rangi. Honongahia ngā korero ki raro nei

Jesus uses a number of parables to try and describe the Kingdom of God. Match the phrases to tell the stories

He rite te rangatiratanga o te rangi...

ki te pua nanī i ruia tētahi tangata ki tāna māra.

a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field;

Ki te rēwena i whaongia ana ki roto ki ngā mēhua parāoa

When a person puts a little bit of yeast into making bread ki te kaihokohoko, e rapu ana i te peara papai

finding one pearl of great value ki te kupenga i tukua ki te moana, ā, haoa ana he ika o ia āhua, o ia āhua.

a net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind

The Kingdom of heaven is like...

Ā, ka kī, ka kohikohia ana ngā ika papai ki ngā kete,

when it was full, the fishermen kept the good fish

Ā, haere ana ia, hokona atu āna mea katoa, ā, hokona ana mai taua peara māna.

so a merchant sells all that he has to buy it.

ā, ka tupu, ko ia te nui rawa o ngā otaota, ā whakarākau ana

And grew into the greatest of shrubs and became a tree

Ā, ka rēwenatia katoatia

And it permeates every part of the dough.

Tāngia he pikitia mō ōu whakaaro o te rangatiratanga o te rangi

Draw a picture about what you think the Kingdom of heaven is like

A large, empty rectangular area with rounded corners, outlined by a dotted line, intended for drawing.

He rite te rangatiratanga o te rangi ki te...

The Kingdom of heaven is like...

