 Kaupapa: Te kupu whakarite o ngā pononga tokotoru

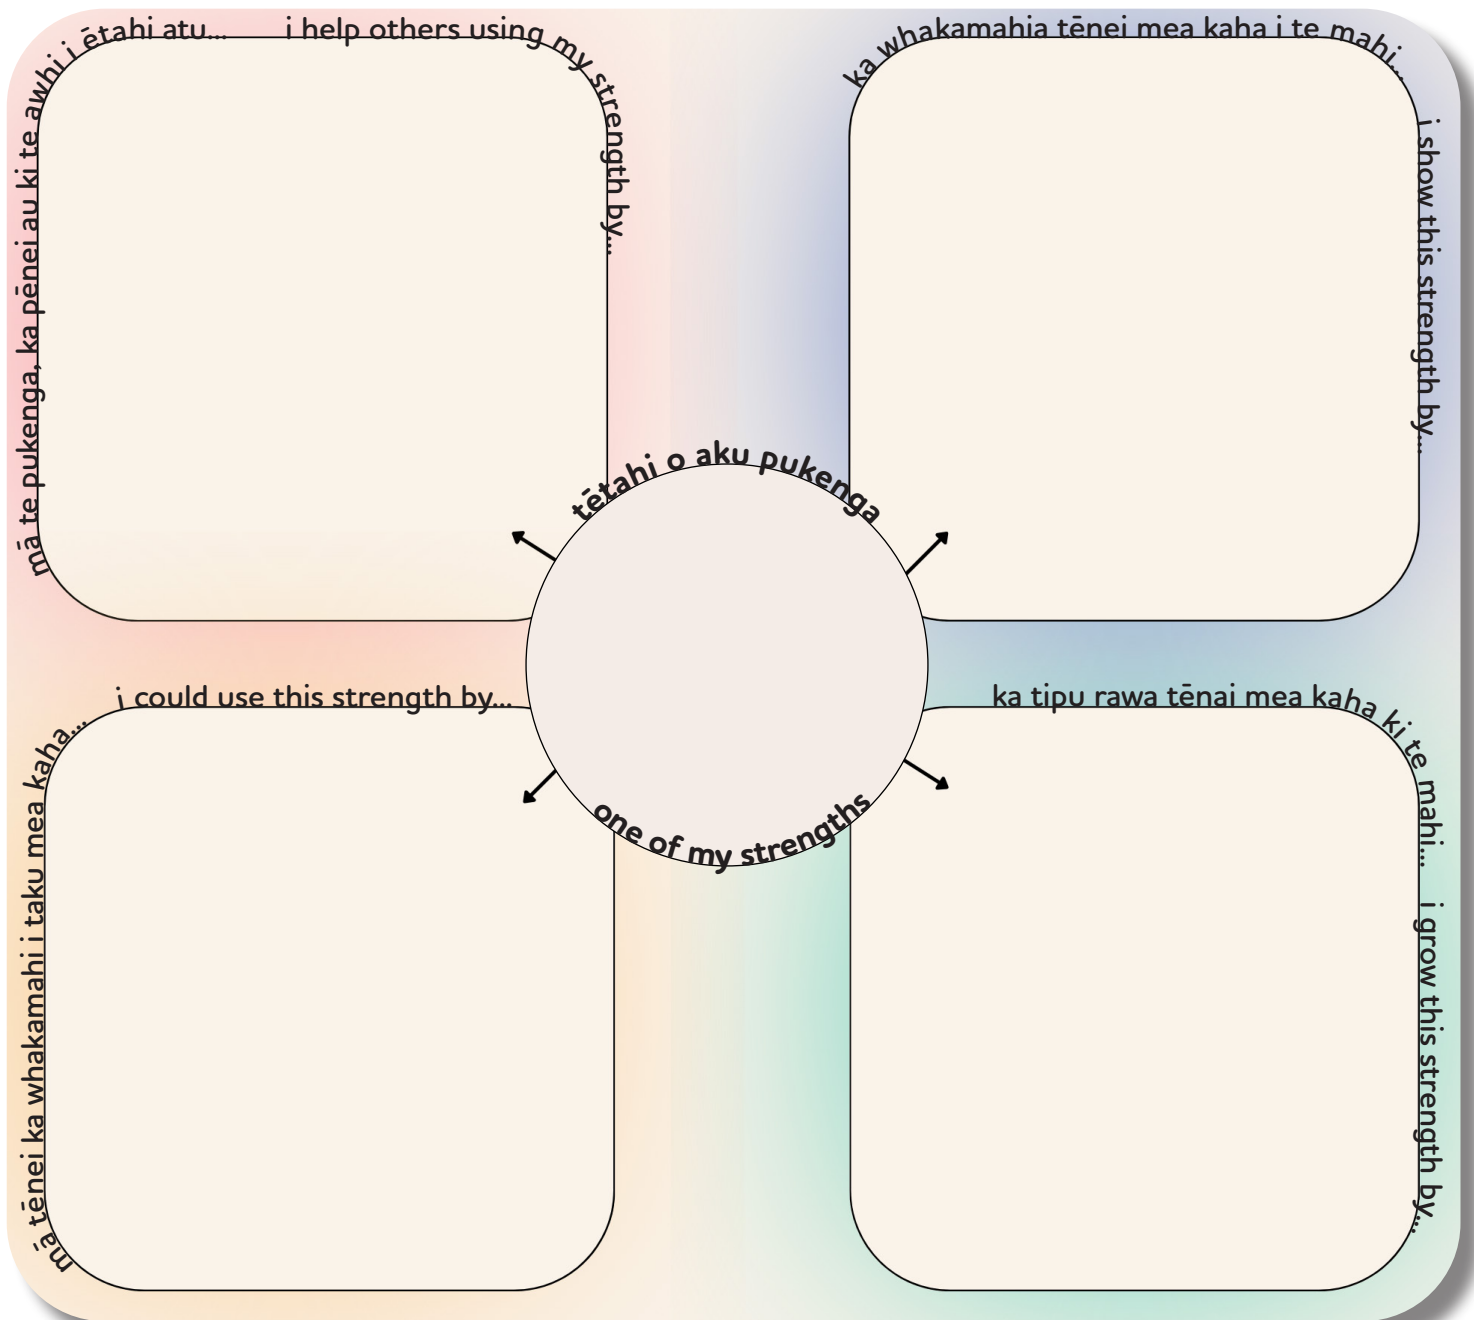

Ko tētahi o ngā kupu whakarite a te Karaiti e pā ana ki ngā pononga tokotoru. Ka hoatu te tangata he moni ki ngā pononga, ā, ka haere ia mō tētahi hararei. Ā te wā ka hoki mai te tangata, ka karanga ia ki āna pononga. I a ia e haere ana, ka tupu rawa ngā moni ā ngā pononga tokorua, engari kahore mō tētahi o ngā pononga. Ko te tūmanako o te kupu whakarite, kia whai mea hoki tatou i o tatou mea.

Jesus told a story about three servants who were trusted with their master's money while he went away. When he returned, two of the servants had grown the master's money, while another had buried it and not grown it. The master was unhappy because he wanted everybody to grow what they had been given.

This is like God and the gifts that he gives us. Fill out the table with a gift/strength that you have.

Koinā ngā taonga i hōmai e te Atua.
 Whakakīia te tēpu ki raro nei ki ōu mea kaha

ka hoatu ano ki a ia, a,

Ki te whai mea hoki tetahi,

ka mahua atu ana

Matiu 25: 29
